VARIANTS:

ARMS:

CREST:

*The Crocketts, who became at this time proprietors of the whole township of Little Onn, were originally from Stoke, co. Stafford, whence they moved to Eccleshall towards the close of the seventeenth century. (fn. 71) Thomas, son of John Crockett, was baptized at Stoke in 1643, and buried at Eccleshall in 1703. His son George Crockett, of Eccleshall, who died in 1752, was succeeded by his son Robert Crockett, gent., High Constable of Stafford, who purchased an estate at Little Onn, and dying 15th June, 1776, was buried at Church Eaton. His only son Henry Crockett, of Little Onn, Esq., J.P. for the county of Stafford, died in 1796, leaving a numerous family, of whom the eldest son, the late Henry Crockett, Esq., succeeded to the Little Onn estate, which was sold shortly before his death, in 1833, to James Ashton, Esq., of Newton Lodge, near Hyde, in Cheshire, though the transfer was not completed until two years afterwards. Mr. Ashton, who died in 1841, was succeeded by his son John Ashton, Esq., who died in 1844, leaving a son and heir, the present Lieut.-Col. C. J. Ashton, of Little Onn Hall, which he has lately rebuilt, and of Newton Lodge, co. Chester.
